WHO's WHO

Jennifer Roantree (Reno) is making her fifth appearance with the Port Singers, having previously been seen in "Brigadoon", "Mame", "The Most Happy Fella" and last years "Follies". Jennifer has also been featured in such shows as "Pajama Game", "South Pacific", and "How to Succeed...". When not performing either on stage or in local clubs she has been known to dabble in lyric writing.

Tim Powers (Billy) has been making audiences smile with his performances in "Finian's Rainbow", "Oklahoma", "Most Happy Fella", and "The Mikado". Tim has also appeared in Play Troupe's productions of "Company" and "The House of Blue Leaves". In his spare time Tim coaches PAL baseball in Port Washington and serves as a lector for St. Peter's Church.

Peter Agins (Moonface) made his debut as Zoltan Karpathy, the hairy hound from Budapest in Port Singers' production of "My Fair Lady". Peter has appeared in "bit" parts in six shows. This is his first principal role. Peter's musical career dates back to 1955 when he worked in the Catskills as a bass fiddle player and vocalist and continued as a club date musician while attending Brooklyn College. Peter is a past President of Port Singers and has been producer for several of our more memorable shows.

Mardi Braun (Hope) marks her ninth season with the Port Singers. During that time she has delighted audiences in such roles as Gooch in "Mame", Laurie in "Oklahoma" and most recently young Phyllis in last year's "Follies". In addition she has served Port Singers in many other capacities, including past President. She has enjoyed working with the Port Summer Show where she stage directed their productions of "Bye, Bye Birdie", "George M" and "The Wiz". Mardi made her professional debut touring with "Brotherhood", and has performed with the Village Light Opera of Manhattan. Mardi is grateful for the support of her loving husband, David, and two children Jarred and Lauren.

Cam Moody Gelb (Bonnie) is currently Co-President of the Port Singers, a position she happily shares with Sue Cuprill. She was last seen as Sally in "Follies", as Pittising in the "The Mikado", and Sharon in "Finian's Rainbow". She enjoyed a career in professional theater and appeared in numerous stock and touring productions. Presently she is the choreographer at Schreiber High School and is a teacher and movement specialist at Beth Israel Nursery School. A co-founder of Merlin and Me Ltd., a company that produces shows and musical revues, Cam gives special thanks to her husband, Victor, and her sons Joshua and David for their support.

John W.C. Canning (Evelyn) specializes in playing members of the minor British nobility. When not performing with local community theaters he emotes in courtrooms from the Bronx to Riverhead representing clients of his general law practice in Sea Cliff. Portraying Sir Evelyn for the second time locally, (he was in the Glen Players' 1988 production) John is making his debut with the Port Singers.

Doris O'Connell (Mrs. Harcourt) has thoroughly enjoyed being a member of Port Singers for over 30 years. She has had major roles in productions of "Music Man", "The Pajama Game", "Kiss Me Kate", "Boys From Syracuse" and others. Doris was served on the board of Port Singers as President and various other capacities. A long time resident of Port Washington raising five children, Doris is now the proud grandmother of nine. Doris commutes daily to Lincoln Center where she is very involved with the performing arts in her position as assistant to the Chairman of the Board.

David Bagley (Elisha J. Whitney) is new to Port Singers and New York, after arriving here 3 years earlier from Tulsa. Like many other lawyers, he considers music his real avocation, he spent 12 years in rock n' roll and rhythm & blues, and is still unrepentant. David was part of the ensemble in Port Singers' 1990 production of Follies, but this role represents his dramatic debut.

Doug Spadaro (Purser) has appeared in many Port Singers productions, delighting audiences with his roles as Jud Frey in "Oklahoma", Pooh-Bah in "The Mikado" and the Sheriff in "Finian's Rainbow". Doug has also served Port Singers in many backstage capacities including stage manager and sound technician.

Richard Yurick (Captain) is new to Port Singers, having made his first appearance in last fall's "Pirates of Penzance". Richard was in the Navy and studied to be a hospital corpsman. After his tour of duty he graduated as a Doctor of Chiropractic Science. He has lived in Port Washington for the past 6 years and is currently in private practice.
